"Twice Born" (Titus 3:1-7)

The Letter of Titus, part five

Sermon Summary

- Good Christian citizens are law-abiding; active in service; careful with their speech; tolerant; gentle; and kind (3:1-2).
- The role of the church is: 1) to personally embrace the gospel; 2) to obediently follow Christ; 3) to love others; and 4) to invite others to do the same.
- The church should never attempt to replace, nor act in the role of civil government; as that is not the church's function or purpose. Our purpose is disciple-making.
- We are to confront human rulers and authorities in the same way we confront a fellow brother or sister in Christ - - with love, grace, and gentleness.
- We honour Christ and follow God's will when we aim to pray for those who rule in our governments; as we seek to act in a humble submission to those placed by God in a position of authority over us (Matt. 22:21; Rom. 13:1)
- The work of generation involves the creation of something entirely from scratch; whereas REgeneration involves the renewal or restoration of something that already existed, but has since become critically damaged or depleted.
- It is the 'washing of regeneration' and 'renewal of the Holy Spirit that enables us to become justified; becoming saved by Christ's grace, not our works.
- No amount of water, however well blessed, will remove one from their idols or soften a person's heart; that can only be accomplished through the power and work of the Holy Spirit (Ezekiel 36:25-27).
- The work of the Holy Spirit enables us to become regenerated to better than original condition, spiritually born again in the hope of eternal life.

God's mercy and grace saves us from ourselves.
